

Barbara B. Brunner

I grew up in Ohio and have loved painting all my life. I started college planning to go into Interior Design with a minor in Art. Before finishing school, I married and moved around the world being a military wife. I continued my art education at different colleges as I moved. In my late thirties I decided to be “practical” and finished college with a degree in Business Administration. After being in information technology for thirteen years I moved to San Antonio and became a real estate agent. Finally, I decided to follow my heart and started painting. Since that time, I have studied under Karen McCauley and have taken numerous workshops from well-known artists such as Pat Dews, Betsy Dillard Stroud, Warren Taylor, and Stan Miller.

I am a past President of the San Antonio Watercolor Group. My painting "Moonlit Prickly Pears" won BEST OF SHOW in the 2009 San Antonio Real Estate Industry Art Exhibition and my Chen-colle', "Lady in Black" on the right below, won first place in mixed media in the 2013 River Arts Group Show.
