San Antonio artist David Guerrero has been painting and teaching art for the past thirty years. He retired from Northside ISD, where he taught art at the high school and middle school levels. His work is regularly shown at The River Art Group Gallery in La Villita and Holland Street Gallery in Bellville, Texas. He also exhibits at various art shows and other venues around the state.

Bright, vibrant colors and intricate details are characteristic in David's work. "Hopefully my creations will give the viewer a feeling of wanting to live or be there. My landscapes are neither here nor there because they could be anywhere. My trees are distinctive and have a surreal quality about them. My inspiration has come from living near the hill country for the past twenty-five years and my roots in west Texas. My art and the process of my technique are unique, and I hope to continue creating, growing, and experimenting."
