

Shelley Christ-Pizana

I am a self-taught mosaic artist. Everything about glass is fascinating. Each project is a unique opportunity to channel my inner child and creative energies. I retired in 2019 after working for 35 years for a large printing company. As an executive in charge of process and product quality I had very little time left to devote to what started as a part-time hobby. I have had the good fortune, over the last five years, to turn that hobby into a full-time career as an artist.

I was born and raised near Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania but found my way to San Antonio as fast as I could. I graduated from Waynesburg University with a BA in English and a minor in Philosophy. Most of my friends and many members of my family were artists, painters and sculptors. I was envious of their talents and the beautiful pictures, stained glass and jewelry they made. It took me decades to find my niche and now I am the happiest I have ever been.

I hope you enjoy my pieces. It is all about the color!
